

LAST MONTH (IN A NUTSHELL)

- After receiving feedback that our ivolunteer signup was cumbersome, we transitioned to using SignupGenius again. (Links are below.)
- We had to make the unfortunate decision to dismiss Holly from our shelter program. However, we have already moved a new family in: single mother, Jennae, her 16yo son, Trey, and her 6yo daughter Remi. Thank you to the volunteers who helped support them on their first few nights in the program!
- As you know, planning for this year's Community Day has begun. If you'd like to help, please email Maryanne at director@fplb.org or call 215-943-0402. The link to our signup to help during this awesome event will be in next month's newsletter.
- We made $173 selling Boscov's Friends Helping Friends 25% shopping passes and soft pretzels at the Neshaminy Boscov's on Sat., Aug. 26th.

HOSTING AT A STATIC SITE

There are many benefits to hosting out of a static site: everyone always knows where the families are being sheltered at all times, the families don't have to move around constantly, we don't have to pay for upkeep/gas for the van, etc. However, there are some challenges, too, like volunteers feeling a disconnect because they aren't engaging the families at their home congregations and feeling like a "guest" in the families' home, instead of the other way around. Well, I'd like to come up with more ways that volunteers can engage with our guest families!

While the congregations are still selecting designated slots for hosting - one month at a time, once per year - we still need volunteers to provide dinners. ALL volunteers can sign up to provide dinner ANY DAY of the year. Meal Prep volunteers are no longer restricted to sign up only when their church is hosting! Also, even though some volunteers feel like they are intruding on the families as Dinner Hosts, the families like the opportunity to show their appreciation to the volunteers helping them through this tough time.

Another way I'm hoping to engage volunteers is by initiating volunteer led events/activities. Once a month, we can have a "Fun Friday" or "Super Saturday" (or whatever moniker we choose) where a few individuals can "donate" something fun to do with the families. Volunteers might choose to take the families bowling, provide a picnic at a local park or playground, or organize a movie night. Feel free to share any input or ideas you have.
